

Cherry Creek Arts Festival By The Numbers 25 Festival Facts for the 25th Anniversary of CCAF

- 1/4: Thickness in inches of the bronze walls of the Tower of Man sculpture, located on Steele Street between 2nd and 3rd Avenues and commissioned to artist Bill Starke by CCAF to donate to the Cherry Creek North Business Improvement District
- 4: Volunteers who have been with CCAF all 25 years
- 5: Times awarded the International Festival and Events Association's Gold Grand Pinnacle Award (the highest award in the special event and festival industry)
- 14: Number of artistic award winners returning to the 2015 CCAF from 2014
- 21: Years that sculptors Jack and Alice McLean (Johnsburg, IL) have exhibited
- 22: Number of times CCAF has ranked on Sunshine Artist Magazine's 200 Best Fine Art & Design Show list since the list started in 1993 (every time!)
- 34: Artists who have shown at CCAF 10 or more times
- 53: Artists from other countries who have been in CCAF over the years
- 75: Janus employees that volunteer annually
- 85: Artists in 2015 that are first-time exhibitors
- 119: Digital artists over the years
- 375: Weight in lbs. of the 12-foot-tall Tower of Man bronze sculpture
- 592: Colorado artists who have been in CCAF over the years
- 644: Total number of pieces purchased by students for Colorado schools to enjoy as permanent installations through the Janus Student Art Buying Program
- 2,000: Lbs. of glitter used at Creation Station
- 2,000: average number of artist applications annually (competing for only 240 spots)
- 3,487: Number of students trained to be docents of the Mobile Art Gallery; docents receive training and guide their entire school through the collection
- 4,662: Miles travelled by the Mobile Art Gallery throughout the state of Colorado
- 20,000: Approximate number of commemorative posters sold over the past 25 years
- 35,000: Cups of water passed out each year during the CCAF weekend at the Janus Water Station
- 41,259: Total number of artist applications over the years
- 220,000: Total dollars contributed by Janus on artwork that is now permanently installed in more than 150 Colorado schools
- 300,000: Estimated number of students impacted by CherryArts
- 345,000: Estimated number of art projects created at Creation Station over the years
- 7,650,000: Estimated number of attendees over the years (more than twice the current Denver Metro population)